KEEPING SAFE

Most young people feel safe going to activities out of school.

Risk taking behaviour

You're ugly!

Smelly!

Some young people admitted to being involved in risk-taking behaviour. This includes bullying, fighting, sending nasty texts, emails, and more.

How could you keep yourself safe?

Good!

Ballet

Football

WHAT ACTIVITIES DO YOU DO?
KEEPING SAFE

Most children feel safer in their local area in the day than at night.

Some children have admitted to going out at night without their parent's/carer's permission.

Children feel safe doing activities out of school and inside of their schools.

Most young people feel generally safe travelling in school buses, walking home from school and playing in their local area in the day.

BY: ERIN WILSON-CLARK
HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

NEARLY ALL CHILDREN SAID THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT TO TELL EACH OTHER WHAT THEY WERE GOOD AT.

WHAT ARE YOU GOOD AT?

YOU'RE REALLY TALENTED!

THANK YOU!

YOU LOOK COOL!

THANKS!

MANY YOUNG PEOPLE FELT THAT TO HAVE A HEALTHY RELATIONSHIP, YOU MUST TREAT EACH OTHER WITH RESPECT.

9 IN 10 YOUNG PEOPLE THOUGHT THAT BEING KIND TO EACH OTHER IS IMPORTANT.

ERIN WILSON-CARL
BEING HEALTHY

In school young people were taught about the dangers of smoking. 9 in 10 said they found these lessons helpful.

Do you find these lessons helpful?

Lessons on drinking teach young people the risks of alcohol. Lots of us said these lessons were very useful.
BEING HEALTHY

9 OUT OF 10 OF US THINK EXERCISE IS IMPORTANT

7 OUT OF 10 YOUNG PEOPLE SAID THEY DO SPORT OUT OF SCHOOL

WHAT SPORT DO YOU DO?

MOST YOUNG PEOPLE EAT BREAKFAST BEFORE SCHOOL

THEY THOUGHT IT HELPED THEM CONCENTRATE MORE IN THEIR LESSONS.
RAISING ASPIRATIONS

Half thought they would still be learning when they left school. 1 in 3 thought they would have a job.

8 out of 10 young people said that their parents wanted them to go to university. More girls than boys said their parents wanted them to go.

More girls said that they enjoy working at school more than boys. Many young people said that working hard was important to their parents.

By: Erin Wilson-Clark.